STUDENT WELFARE

Workington Academy is totally committed to keeping students safe. Nothing is more important than our students' welfare.

The spiritual, moral, social and cultural development of students is high profile in the vision of the school and all members of the academy's community are encouraged to develop Respect, Responsibility and Resilience.

With these qualities in their toolkit our students will be well-placed for the next steps in their lives.

If any form of bullying arises it is dealt with rapidly, fairly and consistently. Bullies are not tolerated. Students are supported and restorative practices and principles applied where appropriate.

- Students are listened to.
- Students are encouraged to talk to a member of staff if they are worried or upset.
- Students are equipped with the skills they need to stay safe.

KEEPING STUDENTS SAFE

The Workington Academy Safeguarding Policy can be viewed on the website at www.workingtonacademy.org

Workington Academy is fully compliant with national and local statutory duties, training and guidance. We follow the Protect agenda and take e-safety very seriously.

Workington Academy staff are well- placed

THE SCHOOL STAFF

to keep a watchful eye on students and their safety, and to protect them from harm. Staff will not ignore warning signs, complaints or worries from students. Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility and staff have a duty to inform he Designated Safeguarding Officer, Mrs Creighton, if a concern arises.

Staff are recruited safely to Workington Academy following Government requirements.

Safeguarding is the collective responsibility of the Local Advisory Body. Every school and academy must have a member of its governing body who is responsible for safeguarding. This is Mr. Stephen Wilson. The Chair, Mrs Tracy Stainton can be contacted via the academy's email.
